

Marcellus Outreach Butler presents:

What if confronting the climate crisis is the best chance we'll ever get to build a better world?

The screening of a film on Climate Change by Naomi Klein, based on her book, "This Changes Everything: Capitalism vs. the Climate."

January 23, 2016
1 - 3:30 PM

Butler Public Library
218 N. McKean Street
Butler, PA 16001

Filmed over 211 shoot days in nine countries and five continents over four years, This Changes Everything is an epic attempt to re-imagine the vast challenge of climate change.

Inspired by Naomi Klein's international non-fiction bestseller This Changes Everything, the film presents seven powerful portraits of communities on the front lines, from Montana's Powder River Basin to the Alberta Tar Sands, from the coast of South India to Beijing and beyond.

Interwoven with these stories of struggle is Klein's narration, connecting the carbon in the air with the economic system that put it there. Throughout the film, Klein builds to her most controversial and exciting idea: that we can seize the existential crisis of climate change to transform our failed economic system into something radically better.

Program is free and open to the public.
